Dear Jeff

Your presentation was excellent. I took more notes from you than any of the others.

Creating Your Own Commandments section was the most useful. The section on determining the number of pages is going to be helpful in the future but even though I'm reasonably astute at math, I was overwhelmed by your rapidity.

You mentioned an article that you had on using dictation equipment. Would you please send it to me along with the copy of the winning book proposal?

You are generous with your time and your expertise. Thanks for sharing.

Sincerely yours,

Cella Quinn
