Hello Jeff,

I attended your seminar yesterday and felt that I can use many of your suggestions. I took many of the quotes from your materials and will use with the staff I supervisor. Your stories were very relevant and made your presentation enjoyable.

At my worksite, I have two office areas both in need of a clean up and clean out. I will take the time to commit to organizing these stations.

We do live in a fast paced society, and this day put it all into perspective.

I am reading the "Purpose Driven Life" now. I hope to purchase a book or two that you have written in the future. Hope to see you again in the First State".
