Dear Jeff,

I had the pleasure of attending your presentation on "Public Speaking" at the NCPTA annual conference in Wilmington, NC last week and I really enjoyed it. I feel that you gave each person that attended good information, examples, and techniques to empower them to make informative and interesting public presentations to any size group. The group participation gave us all a chance to experience first hand and to see our peers utilize the points you were presenting.

Thanks for a very enjoyable and educational presentation on a topic needed by everyone involved with public transportation. I am looking forward to receiving your cassette and hopefully learning even more on public speaking and presentations to utilize in my work with the three counties (Craven, Jones, and Pamlico) that I serve.

Sincerely,
