

July 2, 1996

Mr. Jeff Davidson
Breathing Space Institute
2417 Honeysuckle Road, #2A
Chapel Hill, NC 27514-6819

Dear Mr. Davidson:

I recently heard your presentation at the Leadership Conference sponsored by ASHA. Many of the organizational tips I already use. I am a follower of many time management organization principles and wondered why you feel time management and your philosophy don't mesh well.

Thank you for the excellent presentation. I did read your book on the plane back to Louisville and found it helpful as well. I will be sharing it with members of my staff. I think the most gratifying part of the presentation was hearing that it is okay to take some time for myself even if everything isn't done. With compulsively organized over-achievers such as myself, it is always a much needed message.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Rebecca C. Dausman". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long horizontal line extending from the end of the name.

Rebecca C. Dausman
Executive Director