Dear Jeff:

As in 1992, your seminar was so pertinent and motivating. I am going to laminate the card you gave us that contains Breathing Space principles.

One of the reasons my manager approved this conference was your topic. I purchased your book on time management. It is in my suitcase, which has not yet arrived at my airport--but I have only been home less than 24 hours.

I will keep your card in front of me so that I will keep my desk clean.

Sincerely,

Nancy Matthews
