Dear Jeff:

After the effort you put into your presentation for the Liberty Bell Speakers Association last week, I should have written sooner to thank you. I apologize, but it's been a busy week with a hectic travel schedule. Please forgive me.

1. We here in the Philadelphia Area can't wait to have you visit us again, you were incredible. Maybe next time you can stay longer. My family and I would love to have you as a house guest.
2. My check is enclosed for 6 copies of your book. I've discussed it with a few friends and naturally they want to borrow it, but I refuse to let go so I'm buying them each a copy.

Only the spoken word can fully describe a person with the talents and abilities that you display, and to be honest, words fail me at this moment to describe how much I appreciate your ideas, your ideals and your important message.

Sincerely,

James Fiore, Ph.D.
