Dear Jeff:

I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for attending the Gilbarco sales meeting in Orlando, Fl. and for your most enthusiastic and enlightening presentation on "Breathing Space". I can tell you that this was one of our most enjoyable sales meetings in several years, thanks to you.

Also I would like to thank you for the copy of your book "BREATHING SPACE: Living and Working at a Comfortable Pace in a Sped-Up Society". While reading the book, I was certain you were writing about me! It is a great book, and one I will enjoy reading over and over again to keep my reality focused.

Again, on behalf of Gilbarco and the Sales team, thank you for your time and your insight.

Yours very truly,

Rich Mariani
