Dear Jeff,

Wow! Your energy and information were top notch. I learned a new way of viewing the world and my participation in it. You gave me what I wanted, namely new and practical advice.

After leaving your presentation I shared your view points with colleagues. How we manage the information age with industrial age tools was a real eye opener. I don't think I'll ever open my mail, read a magazine or spend my time in quite the same way as I used to.

Thank you for sharing your insights in an enjoyable way at our North Florida Professional Speakers Association meeting this past Saturday. I look forward to seeing you again.

Sincerely,
