Dear Jeff:

Thank you so much for your excellent presentation at HMA's National Conference in Nashville last Thursday. You gave us all much food for thought and audience evaluations show your remarks had high take-home value.

I'm sure everyone picked up at least one idea they can apply to make their lives just a little saner – I know I did. Thanks also for staying for the roundtable discussion: we appreciate your willingness to deliver added value to the speaking engagement.

Thanks for helping to make the Conference such a great success.

Sincerely,

Susan M. Regan
Executive Vice President
