Dear Jeff,

What a tremendous program!! The delegates to the International Management Council Conference were buzzing about your presentation content and humor. Thank you for making this National Conference a winner.

As I shared earlier, the video marketing tool you have developed helped me make the choice of you as the General Session speaker. The content, delivery and overall presentation of your materials helped me know you—not just the Institute.

Best wishes for all you undertake in the days ahead. I hope we can work together in the future. Until then...

Sincerely,

David L. Neidert, CM
