Jeff,

Attending your session was one of the highlights of the Grief Conference sponsored by the SW Washington County Hospice. I keep your little card of breathing space tips in my wallet, and have already shared it with 20 other people. In fact, I have recommended that Legacy Health System have you come and present during national Nurses Week. You should be hearing from Cindy Evans shortly.

Your presentation held my interest, and gave me new perspectives on why I'm feeling so stressed much of the time. You added humor that kept the presentation alive, and easy to follow. You are an outstanding speaker!

Thanks for making my day more bearable, as I practice your tips!

Sincerely,

Pamela Harris, PhD, RN
