Dear Jeff:

You were very entertaining and quiet informative. You really made me take a closer look at my daily, hourly and minute to minute routine each day.

You spoke at the conference, Women In Business, at the Friday Center. I enjoyed meeting you and thank you for taking the time to autograph the 3 books I purchased. Breathing Space I have really enjoyed reading. Blow Your Own Horn is next.

I have just started my business Steps To Success. Your tips have helped me a great deal. Thank you for your enthusiasm, creativity and charm. It was a pleasure hearing you speak and meeting you.

I wish you much success.

Sincerely,

Vickie Hall
