Dear Jeff:

We thoroughly enjoyed your presentation of Overcoming Information Overload in the New Millenium. What a timely topic! Your presentation provided a wonderful balance of humor, useful information and audience participation. Even distinguished members of our business community were taking notes.

Thank you for the breakfast discussion and insight you provided about the challenges we face today that previous generations did not experience. The impact on our daily lives is considerable.

I am reading your book, The Joy of Simple Living. And I am using one of your suggestions about handling all the junk mail. I hope it will prevent me from nailing my mail box shut! That would be my last resort.

Thank you again. We look forward to hearing you at a future date.

Sincerely,

Bonnie C. Halley
