Dear Jeff:

I returned from the Executive Secretary's Conference in Nashville and began to write a report to my General Manager and Board of Directors on the conference I had just attended.

I really enjoyed your presentation and shared with my boss, your idea of the "Jeff Davidson Advisory Board". He thinks your idea is fascinating and would really like to find out more about it.

To be very honest with you, when I first heard you talk about your own personal advisory board - I thought you had to be kidding. But it makes sense - we use it in our business and it has been a great benefit to us - so why not use it for our personal advancement and growth!

If you have a tape on this subject - please send it to me. I will be happy to reimburse you for any costs incurred.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Julie Schlicht
Executive Secretary
