Dear Mr. Davidson:

I would like to thank you for your presentation given at the Warehouse Education Research Council this past Wednesday in New Orleans. I enjoyed the talk very much.

I have already begun to clear my desk of unnecessary paper and will make a concerted effort to reduce the amount of paper that piles on my desk. As you rightly stated we have so much information that we cannot keep up with what we really need.

Thank you again.

Sincerely,

Mr. Stephen L. Mobley
Vice President/General Manager
