

The University of Connecticut's
Boston Professional Network
cordially invites you to attend a presentation by

Jeff Davidson '73, '74
Executive Director
Breathing Space Institute

Wednesday, March 3, 1999
5:30 - 7:30 pm

Downtown Club
Top of the State Street Bank Building
225 Franklin Street
Boston, MA

Please RSVP by February 26, 1999
(860) 486-5741
or helel@sba.uconn.edu

Jeff Davidson, MBA, CMC
Author and Professional Speaker

Jeff Davidson is an award-winning author, certified management consultant, keynote speaker, and seminar leader. Each year since 1982, his articles on increasing managerial productivity and competitiveness while remaining resilient and balanced in the face of ever-increasing change have reached an aggregate circulation often exceeding 12 million readers. His column, "Action Ideas", appears monthly in Your Personal Best, a Rodale Publication for health and fitness-conscious executives and managers.

In 1995, Jeff launched the Breathing Space Institute, based in Chapel Hill, North Carolina. The Breathing Space Institute is dedicated to helping organizations and individuals operate at a comfortable pace while remaining competitive and profitable, specifically by capitalizing on their space, time and intellectual assets. Jeff is the publisher of the Breathing Space Institute's Resource Guide, updated monthly, and The Breathing Space Report, a quarterly publication providing news and information for those involved with meetings, conventions, or retreats.