Jeff Davidson, MBA, is a distinguished and prominent author. His works have been selected by 20 major book clubs and published in 14 different languages.

“In a rapidly changing society, many managers needlessly lose confidence in their ability to stay competitive.”

– Jeff Davidson

In this spellbinding presentation, Jeff spells out how to remain prosperous and confident independent of the frequency of change you face, and how to maintain a sense of breathing space along the way. If you work for a living, you won't want to miss hearing this.
