

NAEM

63RD SUMMER
MEETING PROGRAM

WHEELWELP

Featured Participants

Patricia Fripp

Patricia "Frippish" style, high energy, witty, dynamic, and versatile talks about common sense - something that's often not such common practice; no complicated theories - just presents real-life examples entertainingly in a freewheeling style!

Fripp received the C.P.A.E. award, the highest award given for professionalism and excellence in speaking by the National Speakers Association. She was also the first woman president of the 2500 member National Speakers Association.

Today, she delivers about 130 motivational speeches per year to audiences such as The American Truckers Association, IBM, Meeting Planners International, and the I.R.S.

Jeff Davidson

As a professional speaker, Davidson has appeared on CBS Nightwatch, Financial News Network, Mutual Radio, AP Network Radio, and has been interviewed by the Washington Post, New York Times, USA Today, Christian Science Monitor and Changing Times.

Davidson, has written 1900 articles and 17 books, among them: Blow Your Own Horn, and How to Market Yourself and Your Career, and How to Have a Great Year Every Year.

Cassette albums include "Time is on Your Side," and the ever-popular, "Breathing Space: Living at a Comfortable Pace In a Sped-Up Society."