Jeff

I want to thank-you for one of the most invigorating and helpful seminars that I have ever attended. Not only was your presentation fun, but it made me look closely at how I allow outside influence rule my life. I have begun reading your book "Breathing Space", and find it uncanny that it addresses the problems of most, it should have been written about my old self. I say my old self as after listening to you and reading this book, I intend on changing, no I will change.

Thank You So Much
