Dear Mr. Davidson:

I was privileged to have the opportunity to attend your talk on "Managing The Pace With Grace" on March 4, 1998 at the ACHE Congress on Healthcare Management. I was very impressed with your talk and am very interested in the concepts you presented.

I am currently in my last term of the MBA in Health Administration at Union College in Schenectady, NY. I am also an employee at CareNet Medical Group, a multi-specialty physician practice. I believe that the information you provided during the "Managing The Pace..." talk can be applied to both of these situations. Right now I am probably a perfect example of what NOT to do, since I am going to school full time and working 30+ hours a week. However, I have put myself through this for the past two years because I am at a point in my life where I do not have a great deal of other responsibilities. I am looking forward to graduation in June, when I'll be able to focus on other parts of my life.

I am very interested in receiving a copy of your tape on Breathing Spaces. I look forward to being able to apply some of the concepts to my own life, and to share them with some of the people I work with. I know that they can benefit from your expertise as well.

Sincerely,

Megan O'Donnell
