Dear Jeff,

I really enjoyed your presentation at the "Journey Through Grief" conference in Tigard this week. The idea that I can have better control over the many duties in my life, that there are other options to consider has inspired me to be more selective with my time. You gave common sense information in a lively, humorous yet constructive way - and I thank you very much!!!!

You are one of the people in my life that has been a pleasure to meet.

Sincerely,
